

How Does Your Business Measure Up?

1. Are you "Running your Business or is it Running You"?
2. Are you working harder and making less?
3. Wondering how you can start to change your business?
4. Do you owe more than you make?
5. Are your employees in charge?
6. Are your employees making more money than you?
7. Do you know what information you need to run your business?
8. Do you use this information effectively?
9. Do you know what has to change but don't know how?
10. Do you have enough time to get everything done?
11. Is your marketing effective?
12. What services make the most Profit?
13. Do you have problems getting help?
14. Are all your services profitable?

If you answered yes to 4 or more of these questions, Raymond Kane can help you and your business.